LEGATIONS

SUMMARY

Investigation:

In Lt. A's Initiation Report and the Original Case Incident Report RD # HZXXXXXX, it was documented that accused Officer A dropped her Taser to the floor as she was removing it from its holster to conduct a spark test. Officer A completed a TRR documenting the Taser discharge. In a statement to IPRA on October 13, 2016, Officer A acknowledged that she dropped the Taser to the floor, which caused it to discharge. Officer A stated that the Taser got caught on the flap of her belt as she removed the Taser from the holster.

Conclusion:

IPRA recommends a finding of Sustained for the allegation that Officer A was inattentive to duty in that she dropped a Taser, causing it to discharge. Officer A was solely responsible for the proper handling of the Taser.
