INTRODUCTION:

On 07 December 2014, Sergeant 1 was off-duty and at the XXXX Pub at XXXX S. Spaulding where he observed the subject, Subject 1, engaged in a verbal altercation with the victim, Civilian 1. Sergeant 1 observed Subject 1 pull out a gun, point it at Civilian 1, and shoot him. Subject 1 then waved the weapon back and forth at Sergeant 1 and other bar patrons. Sergeant 1 announced his office by stating, "Police, police, police," and ordered Subject 1 to drop his weapon. When Subject 1 did not comply with Sergeant 1's verbal commands, Sergeant 1, in fear of his life and the lives of the other bar patrons, shot Subject 1 multiple times. Subject 1 was pronounced dead on arrival by CFD paramedics. Civilian 1 was transported to Christ Hospital, where he was treated for a gunshot wound to his abdomen.

APPLICABLE RULES

Chicago Police Department General Order, GO 03-02-03; Deadly Force

INVESTIGATION:

Per the Preliminary Summary Report, the following information was provided by Deputy A, #XXX, the on-call incident commander, to IPRA personnel during a walk-through of the scene on 07 December 2014, at approximately 2134 hours. Deputy A provided the information based upon multiple levels of hearsay and not verbatim.

Deputy A related that, on 07 December 2014, at approximately 1730 hours, Sergeant 1, who was off-duty, entered the XXXX Pub at XXXX S. Spaulding, to meet some friends. They sat at the west end of the pub over-looking 111th Street. At approximately 1825 hours, Sergeant 1 heard a verbal exchange between Subject 1, who was sitting on the north side of the rectangular bar, and Civilian 1, who was sitting with friends on the south side of the bar. The argument lasted approximately 30 seconds. Sergeant 1 walked behind Civilian 1 and advised him to ignore what Subject 1 was saying. Sergeant 1 then returned to his friends.

Approximately five minutes later, Subject 1 walked around the bar, and again exchanged words with Civilian 1. Sergeant 1 saw Subject 1 pull out a gun from his pocket, point it at Civilian 1, and fire once. Subject 1 began "fanning" his weapon at other persons in the pub. Sergeant 1 said, "Police, police," and told Subject 1 to drop his weapon, which he did not. Sergeant 1 drew his firearm and fired seven shots at Subject 1, who was hit multiple times. One of the shots apparently struck an east window of the pub, breaking an interior pane of glass, but not penetrating an exterior pane. When Subject 1 did not fall, off-duty Evergreen Park Officer F tackled Subject 1, removed his firearm, removed its magazine and placed the gun and magazine on a nearby table.<sup>1</sup>

Deputy A later related to Investigator 2 that SPAR #XXXXXX was obtained on Sergeant 1 for failing to register the weapon that he used in this incident. No police vehicle was involved in the incident and no PODs were observed outside the bar. Deputy A related a video camera inside the pub was recording during the incident, but the recording did not depict the shooting incident. A copy of the recording was to be made for the detectives and for IPRA. (Att. #4)

Victim Civilian 1 is represented by counsel and was advised not to provide IPRA with a statement. (Att. #83)

Departmental Reports for RD #HX-XXXXXXX document that an aggravated battery with a handgun was committed by Subject 1, in that he shot the victim, Civilian 1, at the XXXX Pub. This incident became a police-involved shooting when Sergeant 1 shot Subject 1 to stop the threat. (Att. #6, 7)

A Chicago Fire Department Ambulance Report for Incident #XXXXXXXXXXXX indicates Subject 1 was found lying face down on the ground with multiple gunshot wounds to the chest and abdomen. He had no signs of life and was called in as a Deceased to Holy Cross Hospital. (Att. #16)

A Chicago Fire Department Ambulance Report for Incident #XXXXXXXXXXXX indicates Civilian 1 was found with multiple gunshot wounds to the right and left flank with no exit wounds. Civilian 1 was taken to Christ hospital for treatment. (Att. #17)

Medical Records from Advocate Christ Medical Center document Civilian 1 was brought into the hospital and treated for a gunshot wound<sup>2</sup> to his abdomen (right upper quadrant and left flank). Upon arrival, Civilian 1 was hemodynamically stable, but with signs of peritonitis<sup>3</sup>. According to the History of Present Illness, Civilian 1 was in a bar drinking when another patron pulled out a gun and shot him in the abdomen. Additionally, it is noted that an off-duty police officer subsequently fatally shot the assailant. Civilian 1 underwent exploratory laparotomy, and right hemicolectomy, Jejuna resection and primary anastomosis. The following were the findings; multiple jejuna injuries in a segment of approximately 60 cm of jejunum, ~10 cm from the ligament of Treitz; multiple gunshot wounds in the transverse colon, in the hepatic flexure and grade 2 liver lacerations (non-bleeding). The final diagnosis was gunshot wound to the right upper quadrant and left flank, and peritonitis. (Att. #85, starting on p. 69 - 79)

Evidence Technician Photographs were taken of the XXXX Pub interior; the body of Subject 1; ballistic evidence within the scene; and the firearm reported to belong to Subject 1. (Att. #19)

<sup>3</sup> Medical Records of Civilian 1 from Advocate Christ Medical Center - Peritonitis is an inflammation of the peritoneum, the thin tissue that lines the inner wall of the abdomen and covers most of the abdominal organs. Peritonitis requires prompt medical attention to fight the infection and, if necessary, to treat any underlying medical conditions, page 78. (Att. 85)

Log #1072859/U #14-041

Medical Examiner's Office Photographs depict several fragmented bullets, Subject 1's clothing and various images of Subject 1's deceased body with close-up images of his gunshot wounds. (Att. #21)

According to the Medical Examiner's Final Report for Case #XXXXX-XXXX (Subject 1), Doctor A performed the examination of Subject 1 who had three penetrating gunshot wounds involving the right arm, left chest, left abdomen and the right flank/back area. He also had two perforating gunshot wounds involving the left arm and left chest. It was noted there was no evidence of close range firing in the skin surrounding the wounds. Subject 1's ethanol level in vitreous humor was 390 mg/ml. Doctor A recovered three fired medium caliber copper-jacketed bullets from Subject 1's remains. The opinion was that Subject 1 died due to multiple gunshot wounds and his cause of death was homicide. (Atts. #20, 101)

The XXXX Pub video was grainy and contained three video files showing views from three cameras (#8, 11, and 13). Each of the three files ran for approximately 15 minutes. None of the footage captured the shootings. (Att. #89-91) Camera #11 depicts a white male wearing a dark shirt and hoodie, with dark hair that falls to his neckline (now known as Subject 1) seated at the bar. At 5:54:05, Subject 1 appears to be fidgeting with something inside of his jacket pocket. At 6:21:54, and 6:22:35 he is shown reaching inside of his jacket pocket again. At 6:22:41, Subject 1 got up from the bar and walked east, out of the view of the camera.

At 6:23:22 there appears to be a commotion at the bar in a place out of the camera's view. The bar patrons' attention is directed to an area of the bar that is beyond the camera's view. At 6:23:28 patrons seated at the bar drop to the ground in what appears to be a response to a commotion.

The CPD Crime Scene Video was filmed by Evidence Technician A, #XXXX, on 07 December XXXXX, at approximately 2025 hours. The video has a run time of 05:33 minutes. The footage starts with a view of the street signs at the intersection of Spaulding Avenue and 111th Street. The camera pans to the exterior of the XXXX Pub and then into the pub. The inside views of the pub depict what appears to be Subject 1's deceased body on the floor covered with a white cloth. Also visible on the video are views of the rectangular-shaped bar area, and a small silver handgun which is reported to have been in the possession of Subject 1. (Att. #26, 88)

CPD Event Queries document multiple 911 callers reporting a shooting inside of the XXXX Pub. Other callers reported a police-involved shooting occurred inside of the bar. (Att. #14)

Sergeant 1's Tactical Response Report documents that Subject 1 was armed, under the influence, did not follow verbal direction, posed an imminent threat of battery with a weapon, and used force likely to cause death or great bodily harm. It was reported that Sergeant 1 drew his weapon, announced his office, and ordered Subject 1 to drop his weapon, after witnessing Subject 1 shoot Civilian 1. Sergeant A stated that Subject 1 began waving his weapon in the direction of bar patrons "placing all in the establishment in fear of their lives." Sergeant 1 then fired his weapon striking Subject 1 numerous times. Additionally, a SPAR (#XXXXX) was obtained for Violation 8: Failure to comply with Department Directive regarding Personal Weapons or Ammo-Failure to register a weapon. (Att. #8)

He stated that Subject 1 was giving “strange” looks to people and described Subject 1 as having “crazy eyes.” He stated that Civilian 1 “called him out” and said, “What the hell you looking at? Stop fucking looking at me.”<sup>4</sup> Officer F stated that, at some point, Subject 1 walked up behind Civilian 1 and “threw a shove, and like a wild punch.” Officer F stated that he immediately stood up to create a distance and “push them off.” Officer F stated that he pushed Subject 1 away from him and that he was standing about three to four feet away from Subject 1. As Officer F covered himself and tried to determine where the gunshots were coming from, he observed a man with glasses and a shaved head (now known as Sergeant 1). He stated that Sergeant 1 fired his weapon two or three times at Subject 1.

Officer F observed Subject 1 fall to the ground and drop his small silver .380 handgun, which landed about six inches from his hand. Officer F immediately grabbed Subject 1's gun and cleared it. At the time, Civilian 2 did not think anything of this and was not paying attention to what was being said between the two men. Civilian 2 stated that suddenly, Subject 1 produced a pistol and shot Civilian 1.

Civilian 2 recalled seeing the gun in Subject 1’s hand go off once before he dropped down to take cover. Civilian 2 stated that he looked up and saw a “bald-headed gentleman” (now known as Sergeant 1) shoot Subject 1 approximately four times. He recalled that Sergeant 1 was previously sitting with a group at a table near the front of the bar.

Civilian 3 stated that he did not observe Sergeant 1 shoot Subject 1 because he was taking cover on the ground. Civilian 8 stated that Subject 1 appeared to have "tunnel vision". He recalled seeing Subject 1 walk up to Civilian 1 and state, "How about now or never?"<sup>14</sup> Civilian 8 raised his hands up in the air and stated, "Whoa, whoa not me," as he walked around the bar and got away from the area. Civilian 8 then heard two gunshots followed by a rapid succession of four to seven gunshots. A. Officer E stated that Sergeant 1 showed up at some point later. He recalled that they sat at a table by the window on the 111th Street side. Officer E was watching a football game and recalled hearing a commotion to his right. However, he did not pay any attention to it and went back to watching the game. A short time later he observed a man (now known as Subject 1) walk around the bar toward a group of four white men sitting to his right. Officer E saw Subject 1 approach a man (now known as Civilian 1), push his head and say something to the effect of, “You wanna talk shit or you wanna fuckin’ make fun of me?”<sup>16</sup> Officer E turned back around toward his table and heard someone scream, “He’s got a gun! He’s got a gun!” Officer E turned back around and observed Subject 1 shoot Civilian 1 in his stomach once. Officer E observed Sergeant 1, who was standing to his right, draw his weapon and yell, “Police, police,” and fire his weapon five or six times. He then observed an unknown person (now known as Evergreen Park Police Officer F) grab and place Subject 1’s small silver gun on a table. Officer E stated that he later learned that there were other officers at the bar, but he did not know their names. (Att. #64, 65)

In a statement to IPRA on 08 December XXXXX, Witness Officer A, #XXXX, Unit 005 (detailed to Unit XXX), stated that he was off-duty and at the XXXX Pub with Civilian 1, Civilian 6 (his brother), Civilian 5, and “Officer F” (Officer F). He stated that they were sitting in the southwest corner of the bar watching football. Subject 1 was sitting across the bar from them and was being “antagonistic”<sup>17</sup> toward Civilian 1 by swearing at him from across the bar. He stated that this went on for about twenty to twenty-five minutes. Officer A said he told Civilian 1 to “relax” and “ignore” Subject 1. He stated that five minutes later Subject 1 walked around the bar toward Civilian 1 and pushed him with his left hand and shoulder. Subject 1 then drew a weapon and fired at Civilian 1 with his right hand from his lower hip area. Subject 1 raised his weapon again, at which time “the off-duty officer” (now known as Sergeant 1) grabbed and pushed Officer A aside.

He stated Sergeant 1 said, “Gun, gun, gun,” and “Police, police, police,”<sup>18</sup> before discharging his weapon. He also recalled hearing someone state, “Drop the gun, drop the gun,”<sup>19</sup> but was not sure exactly who stated this language. Officer A stated that he heard at least four gunshots. He never actually saw Sergeant 1 pull the trigger because he was standing directly behind him as he was firing. Officer A noted that Civilian 1 had a gunshot wound to his abdomen. Officer A stated that he did not see anyone else have contact with Subject 1. (Att. #66, 67)

In a statement to IPRA on 08 December XXXXX, Witness Officer D, #XXXXXX, Unit XXX, stated that he was off-duty and at the XXXX Pub watching football with Officer B, Officer C, and Officer E. Sergeant 1 met up with them sometime later at approximately 1730 hours. Officer D stated that he saw a verbal altercation between two unknown bar patrons (now known as Subject 1 and Civilian 1) who were sitting across the bar from each other. Officer D saw one of the patrons get up, walk around the bar and push a couple of patrons. He then heard a loud “pop” and observed Sergeant 1 discharge his weapon several times.

Officer D stated that he did not actually see Subject 1 holding the gun or discharge his weapon at Civilian 1 because people were standing in front of him. Officer D was seated at the same table that Sergeant 1 was standing at. He stated that he did not hear Sergeant 1 announce his office, but admitted that he suffers from hearing problems. Officer D stated that after the shooting, he went around the bar and checked on the patrons, and identified himself as a police officer. He asked them to stay at the bar in order to speak to the detectives. Officer D did not have any verbal or physical contact with Subject 1 or Civilian 1 while at the bar. Officer D believed that Sergeant 1 had no other option to stop Subject 1’s threat of deadly force and had to discharge his weapon. (Att. #69, 70)

In a statement to IPRA on 08 December XXXXX, Witness Officer C, #XXXXXX, Unit XXX, who was off-duty at the time of the alleged incident, stated essentially the same account of the incident as Officer D. He recalled that the offender (now known as Subject 1) got up and walked around the bar and pushed a guy sitting down (now known as Civilian 1). Officer C stated that he heard a “pop,” so he looked in that direction where Subject 1 was located and observed that he had a gun. He observed Sergeant 1 return fire, after stating “Gun, gun, gun, police”. Officer C stated that he called 911 and waited for the paramedics and the police by the front door. Officer C stated that neither he nor any of the officers that were at his table had any physical contact with Subject 1. He believed that Sergeant 1 had no other option to stop the threat. (Att. #72, 73)

In a statement to IPRA on 08 December XXXXX, Witness Officer C, #XXXX, Unit XXX, stated essentially the same account of the incident as the other police officers. He stated that he observed a verbal altercation between a dark-haired, middle-aged man with facial hair (now known as Subject 1) and a group of younger men sitting across the bar from Subject 1. Officer B recalled Subject 1 walked around the bar and up to these men. He stated that he saw a gun in Subject 1's right hand and yelled, "Gun!" Officer B then heard a gunshot. Next, he heard, "Police, police, police," and observed Sergeant 1 run toward Subject 1 and discharge his weapon "a couple times." He believed that Sergeant 1 had no other option to stop the threat. (Att. #75, 76)

In a statement to IPRA on 08 December XXXXX, Involved Member Sergeant 1, Unit XXX, stated that he arrived at the XXXX Pub at approximately 1730-1745 hours on 07 December XXXXX, the night of the shooting. Sergeant 1 stated that he was at a table close to the windows over-looking 111th Street with some members of his tactical team: Officers Officer E, Officer C, Officer B, and Officer D. He stated that they were all off-duty and watching football. Sergeant 1 stated that he observed Subject 1 sitting on the north side of the sit up bar at about the middle of the bar when he engage in a verbal altercation with some men sitting across the bar from him. Sergeant 1 stated that he briefly spoke to Civilian 1 and a 5th District officer (now known as Officer A) and told them he had seen Subject 1 around the bar, and to ignore him because he was an alcoholic. He indicated that when Subject 1 talks, he makes gestures to himself. Sergeant 1 went back to watching football. A short time later, Sergeant 1 observed Subject 1 walk around the bar, go into his pocket, and removed a chrome handgun.

Sergeant 1 yelled, "He's got a gun! He has a gun! He's got a fucking gun!" Sergeant 1 stated that Subject 1, who was face to face with Civilian 1, stated, "Who's laughing now," at which time he shot Civilian 1. Sergeant 1 reached into his pocket and removed his pistol. Subject 1 then shot Civilian 1. Sergeant 1 observed Subject 1 fanning his gun around the bar and toward him. Sergeant 1 stated that he announced "Police," pushed his firearm out with both hands and stepped forward with his left foot while stating, "Police, police." Sergeant 1 stated that he was in fear for his life and the lives of everyone in the bar.

Sergeant 1 stated that he fired a total of seven rounds, as he had six rounds in the magazine and one in the chamber. Sergeant 1 stated that as he fired, Subject 1 fell to the ground. He stated that the Evergreen Park police officer (now known as Officer F) grabbed Subject 1's arms and took the firearm out of his hand. Officer F then cleared Subject 1's firearm and set it on top of a high top table.

Sergeant 1 stated that he told the bartender, Civilian 9, to call 911. He the instructed Officer C to call Lt. A, the lieutenant of their tactical team, and tell him to come to the bar immediately. Sergeant 1 stated that an off-duty officer (now known as Officer C) came into the pub and ordered him to guard Subject 1's gun. Sergeant 1 did not know if Subject 1 had fired more than once. Sergeant 1 stated that he did not see any of the off-duty officers that were at the pub draw or discharge their weapons or have any physical contact with Subject 1. Sergeant 1 stated that paramedics and officers arrived a short time later. (Att. #78, 79)

ANALYSIS

CPD Policy, Illinois State Statute, & Constitutional Standards

This investigation found that Sergeant 1's use of deadly force was in compliance with Chicago Police Department policy and Illinois State statutes. According to the Chicago Police Department's General Order 02-08-03, III:

- A. "a sworn member is justified in using force likely to cause death or great bodily harm only when he or she reasonably believes that such force is necessary:
  - 1. to prevent death or great bodily harm to the sworn member or to another person, or:
  - 2. to prevent an arrest from being defeated by resistance or escape and the sworn member reasonably believes that the person to be arrested:
    - a. has committed or has attempted to commit a forcible felony which involves the infliction, threatened infliction, or threatened use of physical force likely to cause death or great bodily harm or;
    - b. is attempting to escape by use of a deadly weapon or;
    - c. otherwise indicates that he or she will endanger human life or inflict great bodily harm unless arrested without delay."

Sergeant 1 was off-duty and at the XXXX Pub when he observed Subject 1 engage in a verbal altercation with the victim, Civilian 1. Sergeant 1 observed Subject 1 pull out a gun, point it at Civilian 1, and shoot him. Subject 1 then waved the weapon back and forth at Sergeant 1 and other bar patrons. Sergeant 1 announced his office by stating, "Police, police, police," and ordered Subject 1 to drop his weapon. When Subject 1 did not comply with Sergeant 1's verbal commands, Sergeant 1 shot Subject 1 multiple times.

Based on the totality of the circumstances Sergeant 1 was justified in using deadly force because it was reasonable for him to believe that he was in danger of death or great bodily harm when Subject 1 shot Civilian 1, and waved the gun back and forth at Sergeant 1 and other patrons. A Chicago Police Officer is permitted to use deadly force based on: Chicago Police Department's Policy regarding the use of deadly force, Illinois State Statute, and applicable standards within the United States Constitution.

The legal standard in Illinois regarding the use of deadly force is identified in Illinois State Statute 720 ILCS 5/7-5 (1986). The pertinent part of the statute states that:

...a peace officer, or any person whom he has summoned or directed to assist him, need not retreat or desist from efforts to make a lawful arrest because of resistance or threatened resistance to the arrest. He is justified in the use of any force which he reasonably believes to be necessary to effect the arrest and of any force which he reasonably believes to be necessary to defend himself or another from bodily harm while making the arrest. However, he is justified in using force likely to cause death or great bodily harm only when he reasonably believes that such force is necessary to prevent death or great bodily harm to himself or such other person...

Lastly, determinations regarding the potential use of excessive force in the course of an arrest, investigatory stop, or other seizure are properly analyzed under the Fourth Amendment's objective reasonableness standard. The question is whether the officer's actions are objectively reasonable in light of the facts and circumstances confronting them, without regard to their underlying intent or motivation. Graham v. Connor, 490 U.S. 386, 397 (1989); see Estate of Phillips v. City of Milwaukee, 123 F.3d 586, 592 (7th Cir. 2003).

The following factors are instructive in making the determination of whether an officer's use of force is reasonable: (1) "the severity of the crime at issue;" (2) "whether the suspect poses an immediate threat to the safety of the officers or others;" and (3) whether he is actively resisting arrest or attempting to evade arrest by flight." Graham, 490 U.S. at 396 (citing Tennessee v. Garner, 471 U.S. 1, 8-9 (1985)). This reasonableness calculation "must embody allowance for the fact that police officers are often forced to make split second judgments—in circumstances that are tense, uncertain, and rapidly evolving—about the amount of force that is necessary in a particular situation." Graham, 490 U.S. at 396-97. Consequently, "when an officer believes that a suspect's actions [place] him, his partner, or those in the immediate vicinity in imminent danger of death or serious bodily injury, the officer can reasonably exercise the use of deadly force." Muhammed v. City of Chicago, 316 F.3d 380, 383 (7th Cir. 2002) (quoting Sherrod v. Berry, 856 F.2d 802, 805 (7th Cir. 1988) (en banc) (omitting emphasis)).

When Subject 1 shot Civilian 1, and subsequently waved his gun at Sergeant A and other patrons, it was reasonable for Sergeant 1 to believe that his life was in danger. The incident occurred quickly, without warning, and Sergeant 1 had to make a split second judgment as to his safety as well as the safety of the patrons at the bar.

Subject 1 had committed a violent forcible felony and was clearly capable of continuing to harm other persons in the bar, to include Sergeant 1. The totality of the circumstances indicate that Sergeant 1 was in compliance with the statute "to prevent death or great bodily harm to the sworn member or to another person" because he reasonably believed that his life and the lives of the other bar patrons were in imminent danger when Subject 1, shot a man, failed to drop his weapon at Sergeant 1's command, and fanned it around in a crowded bar.
