NARRATIVE

Event #01041 - BWC incident - In summary, while processing above victim (referencing Event # 2135115273 / RD# JE481240 / CB# 30105670) r/o's discovered victim attempting suicide in the south-east tactical office holding cell. Prior to above incident, victim was detained by Jeffery Pub, 7041 S. Jeffery Blvd, security after battering (2) security guards. Upon arrival, r/o's placed victim in custody on signed complaints. While on scene, victim shouted "I'm a veteran! I have PTSD!" but did make any threats to harm herself. Victim smelled of a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage and admitted drinking alcohol stating she had approximately (3) drinks while at Jeffrey Pub. Victim was transported to the 003rd district at 0013hrs by beat 371. Upon arrival to the 003rd district station, r/o's removed victim's belt and shoe laces before placing victim in south east tactical office holding cell with her left hand handcuffed to bench at approximately 0020hrs. Victim was wearing a black short sleeve button down shirt, blue jeans, multi-colored socks, brown boots and had approximately 0.15 ? 0.20 USC in coins while in holding cell. Victim was belligerent during processing, repeatedly shouting "it was self-defense!" "I'm a veteran, I have PTSD! Talk to my therapist!" victim then proceeded to throw coins at window of holding cell. At approximately 0104hrs, victim shouted "this isn't funny!" and threw her boot at holding cell window. After throwing her boot, victim suddenly became quiet for approximately (5) minutes prompting P.O. Gutierrez #14601 to check victim's well-being by looking through holding cell window. At this time, P.O. Gutierrez observed victim kneeling on holding cell floor facing the east wall with her chest and back entirely exposed and her black button down shirt wrapped around her neck with one end tied holding cell bench at 0108HRS. P.O. Gutierrez immediately unlocked holding cell door, removed shirt from victim's neck, unhand cuffed victim from the holding cell bench and checked for pulse along victim's neck/carotid artery. P.O. Gutierrez felt only a faint pulse and began chest compressions at 0109HRS while P.O. Mendez requested EMS. P.O. Gutierrez, P.O. Gomez #3058 and P.O. Lopez #18334 each took turn compressing victim's chest until CFD AMB #55 arrived at 0117HRS and began their own resuscitation efforts. While on scene, CFD personnel related victim did not have a pulse before transporting to University of Chicago Hospital. Victim transported to University of Chicago by ambulance 55 and treated by Dr. ██████ Beat 363e followed the victim to the hospital and medical personnel updated beat 363e that victim began breathing on her own but remained in critical condition.
