VI. LEGAL STANDARD

For each Allegation COPA must make one of the following findings:

1. Sustained - where it is determined the allegation is supported by a preponderance of the evidence;

⁸ Att 17

⁹ Att 4

¹⁰ Att. 11

¹¹ Att. 10, 14

¹² Att. 16

2. Not Sustained - where it is determined there is insufficient evidence to prove the allegations by a preponderance of the evidence;
3. Unfounded - where it is determined by clear and convincing evidence that an allegation is false or not factual; or
4. Exonerated - where it is determined by clear and convincing evidence that the conduct described in the allegation occurred, but it is lawful and proper.

A preponderance of evidence can be described as evidence indicating that it is more likely than not that the conduct reviewed complied with Department policy. See Avery v. State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Co., 216 Ill. 2d 100, 191 (2005), (a proposition is proved by a preponderance of the evidence when it has found to be more probably true than not). If the evidence gathered in an investigation establishes that it is more likely that the conduct complied with Department policy than that it did not, even if by a narrow margin, then the preponderance of the evidence standard is met.

Clear and convincing evidence is a higher standard than a preponderance of the evidence but lower than the "beyond-a-reasonable doubt" standard required to convict a person of a criminal offense. See e.g., People v. Coan, 2016 I.L. App (2d) 151036 (2016). Clear and Convincing can be defined as a "degree of proof, which, considering all the evidence in the case, produces the firm and abiding belief that it is highly probable that the proposition . . . is true." Id. at ¶ 28.

VII. ANALYSIS

Allegations #1 and 2 allege that Officer Cottrell displayed her firearm and pointed it at ██████████ stated in his report that Officer Cottrell removed her gun from her holster and pointed her gun at him. Officer Cottrell denied the allegations. Officer Cottrell reported that she never removed her weapon from her holster. ██████████ said she observed Officer Cottrell unfasten the strap around her gun but never saw Officer Cottrell remove her gun from her holster. The body-worn camera of Officer Davis did not capture the altercation between Officer Cottrell and ██████████ but he mentioned that Officer Cottrell had her weapon out during the incident. Based on the lack of evidence to prove or disprove the allegations, COPA recommends finds the allegations is Not Sustained.

Allegation #3 alleges that Officer Cottrell stated to ██████████ "Do you know you hit the motherfucking police." Officer Cottrell denied the allegation. Officer Cottrell reported that she possibly yelled and cursed at ██████████ but she did not recall what she said. ██████████ heard the officer say, "You don't know who I am. I'm the police." ██████████ did not mention anything else that Officer Cottrell stated. Officer Cottrell said she pulled her sweater up to show her police identification in an attempt to defuse the situation. Due to the lack of evidence to either prove or disprove the allegation, COPA finds the allegation is Not Sustained.
